PART TIME WORK DURING STUDY You may be eligible to work part-time (up to 25 hours per week) during your studies. This work can only supplement your living expenses. Please note only students on programmes Level 5 and above are eligible to work during study. PLEASE NOTE: Your eligibility to work part time will ALWAYS be specified in the terms of your Student Visa.

INSURANCE Please read and complete the enclosed form. If you arrange your own insurance and not provided proof of your current insurance policy to the International office within 5 days from your programme start date, we will be insured with Unicare and you will be liable for any charges that are incurred.

LIVING EXPENSES IN NZ You need to budget from $380 – $480 per week to live and study in NZ. This should cover your accommodation, food and other living expenses. Text books for study can cost up to $500 per year. Living expenses for a full year's study is approximately NZ$20,000.00.

As part of transitioning to a single network of vocational education, Te Pūkenga has developed Te Kawa Maiorooro, Te Pūkenga educational regulatory framework. Te Kawa Maiorooro covers regulations that affect learners, like enrolment, assessment, complaints and graduation. Te Kawa Maiorooro has not yet replaced all of the policies and procedures of each of the former ITPs/ITOs that are part of Te Pūkenga, so where something is not covered by Te Kawa Maiorooro, the individual former ITP/ITOs policies and procedures still apply. If you have any questions, contact internationalAdmin@manukau.ac.nz

PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE You may apply for a variation of condition to your permit, to enable you to work in order to fulfil the requirement of practical experience for your programme.

Please note that this only applies to programmes that requires practical as part of the course and that you can only work in a job related to your programme of study.

CROSS CREDITS If you wish to get cross credits based on qualifications gained elsewhere, you should gather as much information about those qualifications BEFORE leaving for New Zealand.

*Please note that there is an additional cost to apply for cross credits, prices may vary depending on the Faculty.

Applying for cross credits can only be done once you arrive in New Zealand so it is important that you bring all your documents with you.

PLEASE NOTE:

1. It is recommended that your qualification is assessed by NZQA. This assessment tells us (MIT) what level the qualification is and informs us as to what level any cross credits will be. To start this process, go to <http://nzqa.govt.nz/international/international/index.html>
2. You need to bring certified copies of your academic transcripts showing your record of study.
3. You need to bring copies of all the relevant course descriptors you will be using to confirm cross credit eligibility.

Note that these course descriptors will need to show the course's learning outcomes, not just the content. We must be able to see what you will be able to do on passing the course.

If you have any queries regarding this letter, please contact International Centre International.Application@manukau.ac.nz or Phone + 64 9 9688742.

Yours sincerely,

IMPORTANT – Please note the following

Please complete and return the Student Acceptance checklist with the relevant documentation

- Some programmes have limited spaces and students will be accepted on a “first come first served” basis.
- If you arrive late after the start date of the programme, your place may not be guaranteed and it may be deferred to a later date. It is your responsibility to arrive on time.
- All amounts shown are in New Zealand dollars.
- All fees must be paid at the same time you return your invoice, acceptance and declaration form. An exception will be in the event that you have to get an “Approval in Principle” from Immigration first. Payment must then be paid as soon as the approval has been made.
- The tuition fees quoted on the invoice are the tuition fees for the programme offered, enrolling into extra/repeating papers additional charges will apply.
- Any change in the enrolment may impact on the required tuition fee.
- You acknowledge and agree that any payments made to MIT by you (or on your behalf) may be applied to any of your outstanding MIT invoices, at MIT’s discretion. MIT will usually allocate priority to those invoices due for payment at an earlier date. For example, this statement means that MIT may apply your tuition fee payments to cover insurance and accommodation fees previously invoiced by MIT that you have not yet paid. In that event, the amount applied to the previous invoices will remain payable to MIT as an outstanding portion of your tuition fee invoice. Where any of your tuition fee payments are applied to other amounts owing to MIT, you remain liable to pay all outstanding tuition fees on or before the course commencement date, in accordance with MIT’s Fee Payment Policy. Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies, if your course has started and your tuition fees have not been paid in full or arrangements made for payment, MIT will follow the debt recovery procedures outlined in the Fee Payment Policy.
- At any stage of your enrolment should you change your programme, duration or level of studies. It is your responsibility to apply for a Variation of Condition (VOC) through Immigration NZ without delay.
